The four investment principles have been intrinsic to our company since our inception and are embedded in the KRIS culture. They represent both past and future—an enduring philosophy that guides us to make right investment decisions for our clients.

Simplicity

Simple businesses with sustainable long-term growth potential are the ones that create wealth. Our role at KRIS is to look out for and identify businesses that generate positive free cash flows and provide ample growth opportunities in the future.

Competitive Moat

We constantly look out for companies that are gradually widening their moat and the foundation of the business has the ability to sustain technological disruptions. These moats can be in the form of strong brands, distribution networks, economies of scale, inherent cost advantages, or intellectual property rights.

Margin of Safety

We follow a principle of margin safety, factoring in growth and quality. In periods of extreme euphoria, we may stay in cash and invest in periods of extreme distress. We steadfastly follow the principle of “Be fearful when others are greedy and greedy when others are fearful”.

Corporate Governance

We invest in businesses with strong ethics and values. Moreover, we identify managements that are technologically competent and in their approach. In the long term, we believe stable returns are generated by management that demonstrates high integrity and passion.

Corporate Governance

Checks around Clean accounting, Board Composition, Transparency.

Score in the Past

Historical financial analysis, Capital allocation decision.

Promoter/Management Score

Is promoter a technocrat. Checks around his family background, successor, political links, his activities beyond work. We prefer family run businesses run professionally.

Quality of Business

Company's competitive position in the industry, its Moat, the barriers to entry in the business. These are analysed through SWOT analysis and Porter's five forces model.

Valuation

We prefer growth at reasonable valuation and are strong proponents of Free cash flow valuation model.

OUR PMS PERFORMANCE

KRIS's consistent performance culture is what enables us to stay ahead of client's needs. It challenges us to be forward visionaries, problem solvers, and innovators.

Superior performance is an important goal, but how a company attains that goal is just as important. At KRIS, our focus on the long term needs of our clients requires us to take a disciplined approach to manage their assets. And this discipline means we never take on undue risks with our investors' money or compromise our integrity for short-term profit. Instead, we design and administer enduring, high quality investments that can generate superior, sustained performance over time.

Our focus on the long term leads to robust results.

KRIIS offers Portfolio with zero fixed fees and with zero entry load/exit load.

Performance Rate = Flat 12.5%* High water mark applies for performance fees | Minimum Investment : INR 50 lacs.
